Sellersville, Creates Trust

Number of Estates
at Doylestown

DOYLESTOWN, April 13—Two bequests, one of which was to aid in paying a church debt, were contained in the will of Augustus N. Shelly, Sellersville cigar factory foreman, who left a personal estate of $10,000 and upwards and real estate holdings valued at $2500, according to his will probated in the Register of Wills' office, here.

Although the testator's will was executed less than 30 days before his death, St. Michael's Lutheran Church, Sellersville, will receive two bequests. To provide perpetual care of a cemetery lot, he gave $100. The sum of $100 was bequeathed outright to the church to be used in payment toward church debts.

A $10,000 trust fund was created for the benefit of his widow, Mrs. Malinda Shelly. To a daughter, Sallie, for specific services rendered, her father gave her a bequest of $100.

Jerusalem Lutheran Church Cemetery was bequeathed $100 to provide for perpetual care for certain graves. Mr. Shelly, who died March 13, executed his will February 17, and named as executors, George W. Brown, Jr., and a son, Edwin B. Shelly, 726 1/2 Tilghman street, Allentown, the latter being a cigar factory owner in the Queen City.

Six children, Mary R., George K., Justinian, Lorina, Harold and William Haldeman, will share the $100 personal and $900 real estate holdings of their father, Elwood Haldeman, Doylestown township, who named Mary R. Haldeman and J. Kirk Leatherman executors.

The $500 personal estate of Jacob Kohl, of Riegelsville, was bequeathed without reservation to his widow, Emma G. Kohl.

Four children were granted $25 bequests of the $1000 real estate holdings of Adam Psonak, West Rockhill, who directed that his widow, Katie, should have the use of the real estate as long as she lived. George Psonak was named executor.

A sister, Grace Slaughter, Bristol, will inherit the $55 personal and $1800 real estate holdings of Ennals Headley, Bristol, who named Francis J. Byers executor.

With the exception of a $100 bequest to a housekeeper, if she remained with the testator until he died, five children will share the $2200 personal and $1800 real estate holdings of Samuel J. Rainsner, Buckingham, who named Titus Franklin, Furlong, executor. The housekeeper was Catherine Coffman, and George Rainsner, a son, was given a bequest of $600.

Letters of administration in the estate of C. Franklin Hillborn, Newtown township, were granted to Frederick M. Hillborn, amounting to $100 and a tract of two acres at Stoopville. A widow and three sons are the heirs.

A niece, Laura C. Hiller, will inherit the $2000 personal estate of Catharine N. Hiller, Richland township. The niece was named the executrix.

Sons will inherit the $5000 personal and $5000 real estate holdings of Frank T. Webb, Yardley, who named Wesley Bunting executor.

Inventories were filed as follows: Estate of Emma W. Smith, Morrisville, $15,948.13. Estate of Margaret C. Rogan, Yardley, $10,916.64. Estate of Arthur C. VanPelt, Doylestown, $306. Estate of Albert Laill, Bristol, $107.33. Estate of Morris Cohen, Bristol, $5605.67. Estate of Samuel Swager, Quakertown, $1397.69. Estate of Hannah A. Miller, New Britain, $325.75.

MERCER CO. GRAND JURY
SUMMONS "JAFSIE"Sends Request to Dr. John F.
Condon That He
AppearBUT CAN'T COMPEL HIM

TRENTON, N. J., Apr. 13—(INS)—The Mercer County Grand Jury, investigating the Lindbergh murder charge against Paul H. Wendel, has asked Dr. John F. (Jafsie) Condon to appear before it when it reconvenes tomorrow, it was disclosed today.

Although the jury has no legal right to compel the famous ransom intermediary to testify before it, as he is a resident of New York State, Major Allyn Freeman, foreman of the tribunal and a close friend of Gov. Harold G. Hoffman, said he felt sure Dr. Condon would respond to a "request subpoena."

Freeman's "request subpoena" went out in the form of a telegram to the 75-year-old educator, last night, asking him to come to this city tomorrow and be questioned.

Condon could not be reached for comment early today, but it was learned on good authority that he would not go to Trenton and tell his story to the Grand Jury unless Attorney General David T. Wilentz agreed it was the thing to do.

The Grand Jury proceedings, which appear to be rapidly assuming the nature of a re-opened investigation of Wendel's repudiated "confession," and the whole Lindbergh case, will be featured by the appearance of more than 30 witnesses, headed by Governor Hoffman himself. Among those to whom subpoenas have been issued are Millard White and Amandus Hochmuth who testified at the Flemington trial they had seen the executed Bruno Richard Hauptmann in and around the Lindbergh estate at the time of the crime.

Chaplin Film Is Shown In Bristol For Three Days

After an absence of almost five years, the one and only Charlie Chaplin returned to the Grand Theatre last night in his long-awaited comedy, "Modern Times." The occasion proved well worth waiting for. Time has not altered his genius. Charlie Chaplin is still the world's funniest comedian.

It will be shown tonight, and tomorrow night also.

Continuing to shun the "talkies," and relying upon novel synchronized sound effects, Charlie once again proves that he does not require dialogue.

Written, directed and produced by the star, "Modern Times" introduces the familiar serio-comic little figure of the tramp in the baggy trousers, derby and huge shoes into a new world. He is first seen as a worker in a big steel factory, tightening bolts on a moving track. The factory, with its fantastically huge and complicated machines, is like an evilly enchanted forest to Charlie, and he gets into all sorts of hilarious difficulties here before the monotony of his work "gets" him and he goes temporarily barmy.

Thereafter, his life is a series of adventures and misadventures in the course of which he wanders into and out of jobs and jail with an admirable impartiality and manages along the way to play knight errant to a lovely little gamine of the waterfront. This role introduces Charlie's beautiful and gifted new leading lady, Paulette Goddard.

SNOOPERS OR DICTATORS?

(Reprinted from the April 4th issue of Newsdom)

William Randolph Hearst's editorial attacking the high-handed methods of snooping as practised by the over-zealous, dictatorial Senate lobby inquisitors seems to have unduly ruffled the composure of our Washington elders.

This week two Senators, still smarting from the blows of Hearst's editorial writers, forgot their professional dignity and resorted to hysterical invective, interspersed with the now monotonous, parrot-like and utterly ridiculous charge that Hearst is a villain, a Simon Legree with his employees and a Fascist of the first waters.

We admit Hearst is a villain—where unscrupulous politicians and governmental parasites are involved. Those fiends would hardly reward him with a set of angelic wings and a smartly engraved halo for his militant crusades against hypocritical demagoguery.

Nor would we expect Hearst's foes to reserve a special place in heaven for him after he has fearlessly exposed their corrupt practices and the callous manner in which they hoodwink the public.

And it is this same public which is led to believe that when a man works for Hearst he works for a sweatshop. It is common knowledge among newspapermen that Hearst employees are paid liberally. Sweatshop conditions do not exist on the Hearst papers.

Of course there are isolated cases within the Hearst organization where triumphs of mediocrity rule a departmental roost, but nobody expects Hearst to handle every detail of his vast enterprises. These microbes, who somehow filter into any organization because of a "drag" somewhere, are incompetent. At all times on the defensive, they, if anybody, are to blame for any ill-feeling on the part of a Hearst employee.

The third point we mention here is the chant of the Pinks, the Reds and the Yellows that Hearst is a Fascist. This label may be traced to riotous Union Square, where Hearst's name is anathema. The publisher's campaign to drive out Communism and to bring into line those educators and civic leaders who unwittingly or not are supporting the Muscovite cause has brought down upon him heaps of abuse.

There can be no doubt that the long-nosed, pop-eyed gentlemen who want to read everybody's private telegrams are striking out in the dark as they find themselves being forced to the wall.

Under the guise of public duty they are centering their attack on the one man who has the courage to defy them as they brazenly flaunt the Constitution.

In their demagogic way they would "protect" the commonwealth by assuming the role of dictator and attempt to restrict the freedom of the press by rifling the confidential files of publishers.

The action of the Black Committee is a true reflection of the ever-increasing trend toward dictatorship in this country. It has been aided and abetted by the vast bureaucracy which has been set up by the New Deal spoilsmen.

This tendency will continue until the billions of boondoggling dollars now being distributed with a lavish, albeit reckless, hand, are spent. Votes can be bought.

Fortunately there will be an end soon. The taxpayer has about reached the saturation point. His patience is nearly exhausted. He is tired of paying, paying, paying in order that some bungling amateurs, who never had to get up a payroll, might play at government.

Perhaps our lobby inquisitors sense the attitude of the taxpayer and are preparing to rule the country by intimidation.

Minister in Newtown Given Partial Leave

NEWTOWN, April 13—Rev. Jacob A. Long, pastor of the Newtown Presbyterian Church, was initiated into the Phi Delta Kappa, a national honorary educational fraternity for men, at a dinner in Emerson Hall at Columbia University a few nights ago.

Mr. Long, who has been doing graduate work for the past fifteen months, recently had conferred upon him by teachers' college of Columbia University, the degree of Master of Arts in Religious Education. In addition, he has passed successfully the necessary matriculation examinations for entrance into the advanced school of education and has been formally matriculated as a candidate for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy.

For his doctoral dissertation Mr. Long will conduct a research project under the following heading: "Young People and the Church, a study of certain factors involved in the interest, indifference, or antagonism of Protestant young people toward the church."

At a recent meeting of the session of the church the pastor was granted a partial leave of absence for the next year so that he may have more time for this investigation. This action was concurred in by the congregation at its annual meeting last week.

Rev. Jay Warren Kaufman, the present assistant, has been procured by the pastor to give full time service for the next year, beginning June 1, this without any additional cost to the congregation. With the exception of the summer months the pastor will himself conduct the Sunday morning services and alternate evening meetings. He will continue to exercise general oversight over the work of the church during this period.

Rotary, Exchange Clubs Cups Competed For by Many

Bristol opened its arms with a hearty welcome to members of the Bucks County Scouting Council in celebration of its ninth birthday on Saturday. The welcome could not have been expressed better than was done by Burgess Clifford L. Anderson, in his remarks at the rally in the evening when he said: "As Burgess, and representing the citizens of Bristol, it is my great privilege to greet and extend a hearty welcome to the Bucks County Council, Boy Scouts of America, and their honored guests, officers and friends on this their ninth birthday anniversary. We are proud and happy that you selected Bristol in which to celebrate this anniversary, and we hope that you will so honor us again."

"I congratulate the various committees in charge for the most interesting program they planned and they must feel well paid for their labors by the splendid showing their boys have made today. They have certainly demonstrated that the Boy Scout Movement is very much worth while, and our citizens throughout our county should continue to support and encourage Bucks County Council of Boy Scouts. The teaching and training they receive undoubtedly develops the mental, moral and physical condition of these boys, besides inculcating the principles of true Americanism, patriotism, and love of country and flag."

"In a few short years, these boys will become men and charged with the responsibility of citizenship, and the teachings and training they are now receiving cannot help but make them true and loyal citizens. Throughout the length and breadth of our country, there are hundreds of Boy Scout Councils, all teaching Americanism and clean living and this work is going to pay big dividends to the workers and sponsors of these Councils from year to year, by providing thousands of loyal, God-fearing citizens. I again congratulate Bucks County Council of Boy Scouts for its fine showing, and I congratulate the commissioners, scoutmasters and officers, for the great results they have obtained from their labors, and again call upon our citizens through the county to support and encourage these men and boys, to the end that Bucks County Council of Boy Scouts may continue to increase in membership and its success becomes greater from year to year."

The warm feeling dwelling in the hearts of the members of the Council for Judge Calvin S. Boyer, chairman of the Civic Service Committee, was shown by the enthusiastic yell of welcome given to him by the crowded audience in the high school auditorium. Judge Boyer acknowledged Burgess Anderson's welcome by saying: "In the absence of President C. Wilson Roberts, it is my pleasure to acknowledge the delightful welcome extended to us by Burgess Clifford L. Anderson. Scouting has had a delightful time while in Bristol today. The response by Bristol in taking care of all the necessary arrangements for the celebration has been complete. The school, churches, moving picture house, and plans for the route of the parade, have all received the complete co-operation of the different responsible leaders, and their membership. We want to especially thank the Bristol Rotary and Exchange Clubs for their sponsoring the activities of the day. The hundreds who have turned out to make this a real birthday have been well rewarded for their effort. It is my pleasure to thank you for the welcome you have given us and the complete co-operation we have received."

Council Scout Commissioner William Burgess, Jr., was introduced by Scout Executive William F. Livermore, and received the scout salute from the audience. Mr. Burgess presided at the rally and introduced Burgess Anderson and Vice-President Hon. Calvin S. Boyer. Assembly was blown by Seascout Leonard Herman and his Ship Mates of his Ship "The Elks," colorfully presented a color guard setting for the final feature of the evening rally program when Seascout Herman blew "Taps." The songs of the evening were led with the "pep" characteristic of field commissioner, Walter V. Rutherford.

Each of the district groups in the parade had a car that carried the district numbers and on the sides placards giving the names of the communities comprising the district. This did much to aid the public in realizing the great scope of the scouting program in Bucks Co. Council. Mr. Anderson and District Chairman Walter W. Pitzonka led the parade. The local district of Lower Bucks was led by district vice chairman, Paul V. Forsiter, and district commissioner, Herbert A. Pettit, Sr., neighborhood commissioners, David Neill, Joseph Mountney, A. B. Stiles, William Amick, Sr.,

and Harry E. Oliver comprised the official group in the district. Throughout the line of march, crowds gathered on the sidewalks. Mill street was crowded on both sides. The march through the residential section of Pond street and Farragut avenue contained crowded intersections of on-lookers with the middle of the blocks having porches of interested persons. Varied remarks were passed. "I have never seen so many boys and young men in Bristol at one time," others said. "They are a fine looking group of boys," and a considerable number spoke of "the clean-cut manly looking leaders and committeemen."

Local district units in the Lower Bucks parade section were: Bristol Cub Pack No. 1, Cubmaster Ralph A. Scheffey; Bristol Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster Herbert A. Pettit, Jr.; Bristol Troop No. 6, Scoutmaster William B. Lyndall; Seascout Ship, "The Elks," Skipper Fred R. Herman; Bristol Troop No. 3, Scoutmaster Elton C. Lindsey; Edgely Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster Ronald Swain; Bristol No. 7, Scoutmaster F. Leslie Craven; Croyston Scout Troop, Scoutmaster Ludwig Tregt; Seascout Ship, "The Rain-bow Clipper," Croyston; Skipper Robert F. Brenner, Jr.; Cornwells Scout Troop, Scoutmaster Robert G. Geiger; Newportville Scout Troop, Scoutmaster Lewis R. Munster; St. Francis Scout Troop, Scoutmaster Joseph Meehan; Andalusia Cub Pack, Cubmaster Joseph Kish; Andalusia Scout Troop, Scoutmaster George Bloesch; Andalusia Seascout Ship, "The Wasp," Skipper Harry Behm. Leading the Andalusia units was the Women's Auxiliary of Andalusia.

The martial airs of the American Legion Post State Champion Cadet Bugle and Drum Corps, led by leader Charles G. Brodie, were present in their most snappy musical manner. They were "great" and did a "good turn" for scouting. This is also true for the St. Francis Industrial Home School Band who also played many lively selections that helped to make the parade "step off" in a complimentary manner to scouting. The music was badly needed and the help of the two musical groups did much to solve the problem. Dr. J. J. Willaman who had worked so faithfully to provide sufficient musical units was keenly disappointed in the "last minute" regrets from two drum corps units that had promised to be present.

One of the delightful features of the scouting day parade was the attendance of the Women's Auxiliary of Andalusia. The women were present in the official uniform of auxiliary members consisting of white shoes and stockings and white dresses, with a cape of colors of the neckerchief colors of the Seascout Ship, Scout Troop and Cub Pack. Numerous times along the line of march applause was given to recognize the fine work being done by these women on behalf of the Seascouts, Scouts and Cubs of their home community of Andalusia. Led by their president, Mrs. Ethel Hartman, the following auxiliary members were in the formation: Mrs. Sara Anderson, Mrs. Emma Behm, Mrs. Theresa Bloesch, Mrs. Regina Lange, Mrs. Katharine Lehr, Mrs. Frances Oliver, Mrs. Sarah Pickersgill, Mrs. Erna Sharpe, Mrs. Ethel Vickers and Mrs. Lillian Wendkos.

It is the general opinion of every parader that Chief Linford Jones and his police force are "just right." The line of march was never delayed for any time by traffic congestion, and the parade moved steadily along without any delay. Mill street was completely cleared of all cars, giving the effect of Pennsylvania avenue in Washington, D. C., to those who could see the full sweep of the business street of the Borough. All credit is due to Chief Jones and his men. The work of Councilman Roy Fry in arranging for printed placards, restricting parking, did much to help in the clearing of the streets. The usual co-operation of the Pennsylvania State Highway Patrol was shown by having two of their patrolmen assigned to divert highway traffic from blocking the route of the parade.

Doron Green, president of the Bristol School Board, was very helpful in his assisting with the arrangements with the facilities in the institution during the day. His help was needed at the time of the rally in the evening and he was available to see that everything was done for the convenience of the handling of the large group of spectators that quickly filled the auditorium as the parade marched in. The janitors of the high school were on hand to "do their job" and make possible the use of the necessary facilities.

President of Bristol Borough Council, Dr. J. Fred Wagner, in his jovial friendly manner, extended the happiness of Bristol Borough in having with them on the occasion of the ninth

The bride was gown in ivory satin, fashioned on princess lines, the long skirt ending in a train. The bodice featured a cowl neckline, and large, bell-shaped sleeves ending in tight-fitting cuffs. Small satin-covered buttons trimmed the back of the bodice. The bridal veil was of Duchess lace, cap effect, and shirred in the back. Her slippers were white satin, and she carried white calla lilies.

The maid of honor was charming in a gown of turquoise blue lace, made Spanish style. The long skirt ended in a train, and was trimmed with four rows of lace. She wore satin slippers the tone of her gown, long white kid gloves and carried a bouquet of Spring flowers.

The flower girls were attractive in tea rose taffeta dresses. The bodices were tight-fitting, with puffed sleeves and square neck-lines edged with velvet of the same tone. The skirts were long and full. They wore leghorn hats trimmed with velvet, the tone of their gowns, gold color slippers; and carried gold color baskets filled with Spring flowers. The ring-bearer was attired in striped trousers, Eaton jacket, Buster-Brown collar, grey tie and high hat. He carried the wedding ring on a white satin pillow.

NAMES in the NEWS

ONE of the first things a cub reporter learns is that names make news. There are two kinds of names which make news. Names of people. And names of things — products and services — things which touch you more closely than the thunderings of a Senator or the escapades of a Prince.

Look through the advertisements in this newspaper and you'll see names you've known most of your life. Dependable names—names that stand for value — announcing improvements in quality, improvements in service, new and better ways to perform old household tasks, ways to save money and raise your standard of living.

Follow the news those names are making, day after day. Read the advertisements regularly, and use them as millions of other people are doing—to keep up-to-date in the world of goods and services; to save time, effort and trouble in shopping; to help budget your expenditures and get the most for your money.

Baseball, Football, Basketball, Boxing, Bowling and Other Sporting Events Are Featured Daily For The Local Follower and Lover of Sport

TEN BRISTOL BOYS ARE ON TONIGHT'S CARD

The boxing card to be offered to the fans of Bristol and vicinity tonight is now completed and unless something unforeseen happens, it will be the best card ever matched here. Ten Bristol boys are matched with opponents from Philadelphia in the gala affair which will be held in the Italian Mutual Aid arena, starting at 8:15 o'clock. All bouts will be sanctioned by the Middle Atlantic District of the A. A. U.

The bouts will see the comeback trial of Harry Davis, local colored warrior, who for a time stood at the top of the amateur ladder only to be forced to the sidelines with an injured rib. Davis will battle Carl Avant, Seymour A. C. Another new face will be Jimmy Galeone who fights Sammy Padlo, Seymour.

Willie Leighton, who has a long string of victories to his credit, is matched with Johnny Carman, Mason, while Phil Quic's opponent will be Albert Burke, Mason. Chet Castor has as his foe, Sammy Franchino, Mason, while Sammy Baiocchi fights Tony Compagna, Mason.

Jupes Zeffries will have a return bout with Frankie Falcone, Mason, while Tony Puceno will also have a Mason opponent in Ralph Mazzone. Johnny Raccagno has Craig White, former champion of a C. C. C. camp, while the last Bristolian on the list, Vince Delia, has drawn Fred Sporis.

Match-maker Patsy Mofa, who made up the card for the St. Ann's organization, predicts that this will be the best show to be seen in this locality for quite some time, and is anxious to see seven Bristol boys come through with victories.

BRISTOL HIGH NINE TO OPEN SEASON TOMORROW

John Harrison, with a new ace, will probably be the star for the Blue and Gold of Morrisville when the Bulldogs meet Bristol High in the scholastic baseball opener here tomorrow.

Harrison, long a Nemesis to the Bunnies on the basketball court, will be out to duplicate his court activities when he starts on the mound, Tuesday. He will be caught by Bob Duboskey.

Coach Bill Dougherty of the locals has either Billy Gallagher, a portlander, or Joe Conti, speed ball artist, to twirl against the Bulldogs. Jesse VanZant will be the backup for the homesters.

Bristol's nine will be out to even the results of athletic contests for the year. The series now stands three to two in favor of the up-river lads. The Bunnies were triumphant in the gridiron in the football clash between the two rivals, while the Bulldogs retaliated by copping three out of four basketball frays.

The up-river lads will gain their hitting from a trio of heavy-hitting outfielders: Harry Hughes, a greatly improved gardener, Joe Gorman and Jimmy Paddock constitute the Hollman-coached crew's outer garden, and are expected to furnish the heavy artillery in Morrisville's offense. The infield will be made up of Joe Piro, Frank Wilmot, Dick Young and Al Paddock.

The Bristol team will be made up of nearly all newcomers. Five of the starters include new faces wearing a Cardinal and gray uniform for the initial time on the diamond.

Johnny Stallone at second; John Dick, shortstop; and Don Sagolla at third, are the veterans of the infield, while Harry Bamforth is the lone fly-chaser back.

Charlie Hughes, basketball star, will be the first-sacker, while Tom Profy and Willie "Weaser" McCahan are the other outfielders. Stallone, Dick and Bamforth are the main cogs in the offense.

Regardless of the outcome of the game, both the Morrisville and Bristol nines are expected to finish below the strong Newtown High aggregation in the Lower Bucks County League race. Newtown is generally conceded the confalon, according to reports from all parts of the circuit. They are the present champions.

ARRANGE TEN BOUTS FOR CROYDON ARENA

Ten bouts have been arranged by Matchmaker Giordano for the Croydon Fight Club. The fights will take place Wednesday night in the Croydon Arena, and are sanctioned by the Middle Atlantic A. A. U.

All favorites who have shown wares in Bristol will be shown on this card. The matchmaker has arranged one heavy, three middle-weights, two light-weights and one bantam-weight and four Bristol fighters on the card.

The management has arranged this card to be the best ever shown in Croydon.

scouting birthday, the members of the Order of the Arrow, while he attended their annual dinner, held at the Keystone Hotel. Sakima Burtis C. Tomlinson of Morrisville expressed the pleasure of having as guests vice-presidents, Walter W. Pitzonka, Bristol; Hon. Calvin S. Boyer, Doylestown; and A. R. Hendricks, Sellersville. Council Scout Commissioner William Burgess, Jr., and Commodore Thomas B. Stockham were also present. Grace was said by A. R. Hendricks, and the Buccoo camp songs and lodge songs were led by "Bill" Hagar of Langhorne. Scout Executive "Uncle Bill" Livermore introduced National Grand Lodge treasurer, Joseph N. Pattison, Philadelphia. Mr. Pattison spoke of the great enjoyment he was having attending the various activities of the scouting day and expressed the greetings from the National Lodge of the Order of the Arrow. Members of the lodge were interested in the report of the Sakima for the balance of the year.

Manager Edward Lynn of the Grand Theatre went to considerable effort to present a delightful show for the guests. Mr. Lynn selected a choice of pictures that were greatly enjoyed. They included: "Beginner's Luck," "Toyland Broadcast," "Sporting Nuts," and "Stars of Tomorrow." It was very kind of Mr. Lynn to arrange this on one of the busiest show days of the week.

Thanks to the food contributions of cocoa, milk, pretzels, crackers, cakes, wieners and rolls, it was possible for the men at the Presbyterian Church, led by Robert C. Ruehl, assisted by the women of that church and the men of the Methodist church, under the leadership of Howard Smoyer, with the help of the church choir, to provide a "tasty feed" for the visitors. The work was well done by the two churches and all the boys had plenty to eat. It was another illustration of real Bristol hospitality.

District Chairman Walter W. Pitzonka complimented Scoutmaster Gilbert W. Carlin, leader of Chalfont Troop No. 1, that took first place in the Scoutcraft Meet by a total of 21 points, and presented the 1936 championship scoutcraft banner to him for his troop. Chalfont scored first places in judging, observation and thousand legger. They were also able to secure two second places in signaling and exhibition drill, that gave them enough to "clinch" the 1936 championship. Mr. Pitzonka in his remarks was thoughtful of the devoted, fine work done by all of the 23 scout troops, who were represented by participants in the afternoon contests. Perkasio No. 1, Scoutmaster Clarence Souder, the 1935 "champs" took second place with 13 points, and Herbert Pettit, Jr., was able to lead Bristol Troop No. 1 to third place with 11 points. The local troop No. 1 took first place in cooking and exhibition drill, Class A with third place in the thousand legger. Troops securing places giving them point recognition, in addition to the three place winners were: Morrisville No. 1, Trevose, Riegelsville, Siles, Perkasio No. 2, Quakertown No. 2, Bristol No. 6, Sellersville, Quakertown No. 1, Doylestown No. 1, Cornwells and Doylestown No. 2.

It was a delight to see the snappy marching of the exhibition drill teams on the high school grounds in the afternoon. Bristol Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster Herbert A. Pettit, Jr., was the first in Class A, with a total of 314 points. The championship exhibition drill team from the local Troop No. 1, was commanded by Gene Nichols, and their leader was Tony Orazi, Scouts on the team were: Dan DiLorenzo, William Roberts, George Mountney, Lewis Conklin, Walter Hardy, Charles Fry, Jack Spencer, Wilbur Albright, William Fry, Marvin Skeath, Charles Weik and Ralph Scheffey.

Perkasio No. 1, Scoutmaster Clarence W. Souder, was second with 309 points and Doylestown No. 2, Scoutmaster Hillborn Darlington, Jr., took third place with 292. The Class B group first place was taken by Siles, Scoutmaster Willis Wisham, by a total of 298 points. Chalfont, Scoutmaster Gilbert W. Carlin, was second with 291, and Riegelsville, Scoutmaster Edward W. Scherer, was third with 274.

Place winners for the scoutcraft events were: Rope work, Perkasio No. 1, Ralph Haring and James Moyer; second, Morrisville No. 1, Walter Huber and Lawrence Newell; third, Quakertown No. 1, Arlington Lewis and John Markle.

Cooking, Bristol No. 1, Gene Nichols; second, Morrisville No. 1, Raymond Clover; third, Riegelsville, Walter Huff, Jr.

Signaling, Perkasio No. 1, W. Blintzer, C. Weisel, W. Snyder and C. Cassell; second, Chalfont, G. Carlin, A. Wick, A. Good, and J. Clark; third, Doylestown No. 1, P. Rice, L. Sheaffer, W. Miller, and E. Cressman.

Judging, Chalfont, Walter Barberski; second, Bristol No. 6, George Hampton, and third, Cornwells, James Kelly.

Observation, Chalfont, George Carlin; second, Riegelsville, Clarence Fox, and third, Sellersville, Robert Bacon.

Timing, Trevose, Harry Heller; second, Quakertown No. 2, Robert Shive, and third, Bristol No. 6, Harry Waltz. Thousand legger, Chalfont, Arthur Drach, Donald Brickmeyer, Joseph Clark, George Carlin, James Boehret, Albert Wick, Robert Sands and Alton Good; second, Perkasio No. 2, Karl Oettel, James Wimmer, Irvin Seltzer, Kenneth Treffinger, Robert Fretz, Robert Scheible, Stanley Wimmer and Russell Freed, and third, Bristol No. 1, Daniel DiLorenzo, William Roberts, Anthony Orazi, John Spencer, John O'Connor, Wilbur Albright, Walter Hardy, and Lewis Conklin.

During the evening program at the rally, many of the annual cups and awards were presented. Three important groups were announced relative to the parade participation on marching and the earlier inspections in the afternoon.

Nine troops were in the five hundred point class for the Bristol Exchange Club troop appearance cup. It took Perkasio No. 1, Scoutmaster Clarence Souder, to repeat his earning the cup last year, by securing a total of 556 points in the 1936 contest. Bob Geiger, of Cornwells, who has been doing such exceptional fine leadership, during the past few months that he has been Scoutmaster proved to be a close second place winner with 552 points. Andalusia No. 1 was not far behind (Scoutmaster George Bloch) for third place with 547 points. Vice-president Andrew MacArthur, Bristol Exchange Club, heartily congratulated Clarence Souder, the Scoutmaster of Perkasio, on his repeating their previous victory, and added his commendation to the fine work of all the leaders in what he considered was an "exceptionally fine parade."

It was with a great deal of pleasure that District Attorney Eastburn Arthur M. Eastburn, chairman of the camping committee, presented the Doylestown Rotary Club appearance cup to Scoutmaster Eugene R. Boyd, of the Langhorne cub pack. It was close scoring and the finest display of appearance and marching that gave this annual cup recognition to the Delaware Valley district unit. Close "on the heels" of Langhorne and with only a slight difference in points was the Andalusia Cub Pack led by Scoutmaster Joseph Kish with 542 credits. Perkasio No. 2 Cub Pack, Cubmaster William R. Sine, Jr., took third place, with Newtown No. 2, and Bristol No. 1 placing fourth and fifth respectively. The attractive blue uniform of the cub packs with the gold piping aroused the hearty enthusiasm of the public during the parade. Each of the Cubs, although in the nine, ten and eleven year age group, expressed the devotion to his cub pack by trying to hold himself as erect and march as snappily as he knew how.

Out of a possible 600 points Andalusia Scout Ship "The Wasp," Skipper Harry A. Behm, scored 591 points. Considering the close judging that is typical of all the Scouting competitions, it is remarkable that this ship was able to score within 9 points of complete perfection. This is the second consecutive year for "The Wasp" to be Council Scout Ship "appearance champs." It was not an easy victory when it is considered that all of the Ships were within 55 points of the possible 600 points. H. Harper Stockham, skipper of "The Robert Morris," Morrisville, was second with 576 points. The Scout Ship "Ranger" from the Sellersville-Perkasio section, Skipper Francis P. Kemmerer, was third with 569 2-3 points, with the "Rainbow Clipper," Croydon, Robert F. Brenner, Jr., skipper, within one point of "The Ranger," by having a score of 568 2-3. The Scout Ship "The Elks," of Bristol, was fifth and it is a place that they can be proud of and not discouraged. One of the visiting Scouting officials made the statement, "I have never seen as many Scouting Scout Ships in any one council formation in all my sixteen years of service as I have seen this evening."

Jacob H. Shoemaker, Quakertown, in making the Quakertown Chamber of Commerce presentation to Skipper Harry A. Behm, of the Chamber of Commerce appearance cup, said, "This cup is annually awarded to the Ship that makes the best marching appearance and passes with highest honors in the inspection of insignia, colors, personal appearance and uniform. I congratulate the skipper of 'The Wasp,' and the leaders and Scouts of the other Ships for their fine showing."

Rev. S. Brooks Knowlton announced the awarding of the Bristol Rotary stunt cup to Scoutmaster George Bloch, of Andalusia, Troop No. 1, with a total of 428 points. Edgely, Scoutmaster Ronald Swain, was second with 403 points, and third went to Morrisville No. 1, Scoutmaster James Fenimore, with 400. The stunts were greatly enjoyed by the nearly one thousand people who attended the rally in the high school auditorium. The stunts by troops were: "Mars-Chocolate-Spaghetti," given by Sellersville Scout troop, being a "take off" on the present Ethiopian situation. The clever mathematics displayed by Morrisville troop No. 1 in the scene in the "Dumb Coal Dealers" received hearty applause from the audience. The domestic difficulties of a maladjusted couple were portrayed with all of the vim and vigor of martial misunderstanding through a scene arranged by Doylestown No. 1. Harrisville had a "take off" on the Olympics in their "The Great O-Limp-ics." England played cricket. Scotland threw the javelin. Italy handled the guns, and Germany clanked the swords. By a magical combination of solutions, sprays and concoctions of different chemicals, Andalusia cleverly portrayed "Chemical Magic." Lion tamers from the circus could not have done any better than Doylestown No. 2 in their dramatizing of "Lion Tamers Wanted." Life saving with resuscitation, rescue work, and carefulness in swimming was shown by Richboro. The good old Ford was in for more harrowing experiences by the actors of the Edgely troop in their giving the scene of "Uncle Ezra's Ford."

The Scouting Day feed awarded to the unit that had the greatest round trip mileage to Bristol, was secured by Sellersville, Scoutmaster J. Kenneth Minninger, with a total of 2,574 miles. The score is tabulated by multiplying the round trip mileage to Bristol by the membership of the scoring unit. Perkasio Cub Pack No. 2, Cubmaster William R. Sine, Jr., scored a close second with 2,508 miles, and third was taken by Perkasio Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster Clarence W. Souder, with a total of 2,294 miles. It is interesting to know that the total round trip mileage involved by individuals to come to Bristol totaled 23,127 miles, nearly a trip around the world. District chairman Paul V. Forster congratulated Sellersville on having secured the mileage award that will give them a real "Bristol feed" at one of their troop meetings within the next three weeks.

The loyalty of the membership of five of the units was so outstanding that all of them attained one hundred per cent in attendance. They were Sellersville Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster J. Kenneth Minninger, Cornwells Troop No. 1, Scoutmaster Robert G. Geiger, Scout Ship, "Robert Morris," of Morrisville, Skipper H. Harper Stockham, Scout Ship "The Wasp" of Andalusia, Skipper Harry A. Behm, and Cub Pack No. 2 of Perkasio, Cubmaster William R. Sine, Jr. "Joe" Kish and his cub pack of Andalusia were very close by their scoring 97 per cent and not far behind them was Eugene R. Boyd and Langhorne Pack No. 1. District vice-chairman William Lange, Sr., Andalusia, had a difficult situation with five ties for first place with only one banner, which aroused the thought in his mind, "If I were making application, I could give you five portions from one apple; however, this is different with five units to receive one banner. This is great loyalty on the part of all of you, and although I cannot award the banner to any of you, as it would not look well in five parts; I am sure the Scouting Day Committee will reach a satisfactory decision."

"Tooting" his way to success over all competitors, Gerald Biehn, Eagle Scout, of Quakertown No. 2, took first place. Biehn has been trying for over four years to win county honors. It proved to be his day, for having become the Bucks County champion ship bugler, he will receive a gold Rexcraft bugle. Scoutmaster Palmer Tochterman of the Scout Ship "Rainbow Clipper" of Croydon, was second, and William Hagar, Langhorne came in a close third. There were six buglers within three points of each other and that close to first place. The presentation of the bugle was the responsibility of District Chairman A. R. Hendricks, Sellersville.

The Ninth Birthday Pageant arranged by District Commissioner Harold D. R. Crumrine, and the Cubs and Scouts of the Langhorne Group, aided by a number of other Scouting leaders, presented a scene of "The Growth of Scouting in the Bucks County Council." It was shown in four quick snapshots, concluding with all Scouting rallying around "the boy." The work on the scene with Mr. Crumrine was done by Neighborhood Commissioner Joseph A. Zolot, Scoutmaster T. Holland Paist, Jr., and Cubmaster Eugene R. Boyd. The cast included Scoutmaster Clarence Souder, of Per-kasio, as the discouraged Scout leader in need of technical assistance. Joseph Rothenback took the part of the Cub and Stanley Zolot as the Scout. Cubs assisting in the scene were Edward Frutchey and Joseph Zolot, Jr. Buster Parker was Baden-Powell, and "The Scout" was J. Thompson Frutchey. The closing scene of everyone working for "the boy" was made possible through the co-operation of the Skipper and Scouts of the Andalusia Ship, "The Wasp," Skipper Robert F. Brenner, Jr., of "The Rainbow Clipper," and Assistant Cubmaster Raymond Vickers, Andalusia. Scouts of other nations were John Fabian, Wesley Cloud, Clifford Harding, Robert Mitchell, Frank Wahl, Norman Darrah, Robert Fabian and Albert Tomlinson. Property manager was Emerson Greene.

The ninth Scouting Anniversary closed with the happy experiences taking place in the lives of hundreds of boys and men. Bristol was the "perfect host." The thousands of judging, scores, and tabulations declared many new champions and the continuation of several old ones. Owing to the Tenth Anniversary occurring in 1937, the occasion will be celebrated at Doylestown, and it is going to take every effort on the part of the County Seat to equal the reception and entertainment given to the Bucks County Scouting Council during the gathering on Saturday. The program was started, carried on, and concluded "on time." It was "living Scouting" by all.
